Well as you can see the goodies supplied by the Brownies are already being put to good use as mum and her kittens tuck in while in the care of one of our fosterers until they are fit enough to be re-homed.If they were not to busy eating they would say thank you!!

